

Vanessa Rothstein

NCCPA-Certified Physician Assistant

Redmond , WA, 98053

(646) 918-0228

vanessa.rothstein@seattlechildrens.org

Objective: To work as a Physician Assistant in a position that utilizes my clinical skills and knowledge to provide exceptional patient care and professionalism, while fostering an environment supportive of continued education and skill enhancement.

Work History

2017-08 - Current

Neonatal APP Supervisor

Seattle Children's Hospital , Seattle , WA

Management and developmental/professional support of assigned direct reports. Facilitation of team connections/information for APP team members at assigned working site. Participation and coordination of multidisciplinary team meetings and communications with site leadership. Management of quality assurance, including quarterly communications and annual performance evaluations for direct reports, daily safety huddles, process improvement measures for clinical care, and corrective measures/growth support for team members.

2014-05 - Current

Neonatal APP

Seattle Children's Hospital, Seattle, WA

Clinical duties: daily rounds with multidisciplinary team, physical exam and documentation, daily billing and compliance, implementing medical management of inpatient care including diagnostic tests, interventional procedures, labs, radiological imaging, medications, nutrition, resuscitation of newborns at high risk deliveries, as well as patient management of ECMO/HFJV /HFOV/iNO. Coverage for night call, labor and delivery, and newborn service. Consultant for pediatric inpatient floor and ED department. Preceptorship of pediatric residents, newly graduated NNPs, and PA Fellows.

2011-09 - 2014-04

Physician Assistant, NICU

Janet Weis Children's Hospital, NICU, Danville, PA

Clinical duties: completing individual daily rounds while on service, history taking and documentation of medical plan, physical and laboratory diagnostics, implementing medical management of inpatient care including diagnostic tests, interventional procedures, labs, radiological imaging, medications, nutrition, and resuscitation of newborns at delivery. Coverage for night call, labor and delivery, and all preterm/high risk/ emergent deliveries. Supervision and education of pediatric and physician assistant residents.

2010-05 - 2011-08

Physician Assistant, Pediatric General Surgery

Banner Pediatric Specialists , Mesa, AZ

Clinical duties: providing pre and post surgical patient care in the outpatient and inpatient setting; first assisting in the OR and responding to surgical consultations from the emergency department, inpatient floor, and private outpatient office; assessing need for surgical intervention and implementing appropriate management based on patient history, physical exam, labs, imaging and overall clinical presentation.

2010-01 - 2010-04

Physician Assistant, Intern

Care 1st Health Plan Inc., Phoenix, AZ

Medical reviewer working with Medicare/Medicaid program: medical decision making for prior- authorization, concurrent review, quality management, credentialing, and guideline/policy development.

2009-02 - 2009-11

Physician Assistant, NICU

Montefiore Medical Center, Jack D Weiler Hospital, The Bronx, NY

Clinical duties included: completing individual daily rounds on all in-patients with history taking and documentation of medical plan, physical and laboratory diagnostics, implementing medical management of inpatient care including diagnostic tests, interventional procedures, labs, radiological imaging, medications, nutrition, and resuscitation of newborns at delivery.

Education

2009-11 - 2011-05

Master of Physician Assistant Studies: Pediatric General Surgery

University of Nebraska Medical Center - Omaha, NE

2006-08 - 2008-10

Physician Assistant Certificate : Physician Assistant Studies

Weill Cornell Medical College - New York, NY

2002-08 - 2006-05

Bachelor of Science: Physiology

University of Arizona - Tucson, AZ

Summa Cum Laude

Research

Research Assistant

University of Arizona Medical Center, Department of Pediatrics 2005-2006

Assisted in research pertaining to necrotizing enterocolitis and gastroenterological mucosal immunology. Authored an undergraduate honors thesis entitled: Prevalence of Macrophages in the Ileum of Neonatal Mice with Necrotizing Enterocolitis. Research Directors: Dr. Shannon Jenkins, DO; Melissa Halpern, PhD.

Licenses/Certification/Affiliations

- NCCPA Board Certification
- Washington State License
- DEA Certification
- NRP Provider

References

References available upon request