

Mark Keeley

Mark Keeley served as a corporate officer and Big 4 Audit and Information Technology Consulting Partner, with nearly 15 years as a Partner at PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP. He has extensive start-up and public company experience across a diverse group of industry sectors. Among his health care clients at PwC were Hartford Hospital, Charlotte Hungerford Hospital, Baystate Health Systems, Masonic Home and Hospital, and Yale-New Haven Medical Center. He led PwC's Hartford area not-for-profit Best Practices Benchmarking Practice, where he focused on collecting and sharing efficient and effective policies and procedures over financial ERP (Enterprise Resource Planning) configuration, logical security and computer operation. Mark is a Certified Public Accountant (CPA), Finance MBA, and one of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountant's (AICPA's) original Certified Information Technology Professionals (CITP). He has specialized in corporate transformation, transaction services, and corporate governance & regulation.

From a family spanning multiple generations in Hartford, Mark is an active community volunteer. He has been an avid coach and mentor for the Hartford-based Social Enterprise Trust (reSET), where he has helped promote the success of many historically underutilized businesses. He remains the long-standing Commodore and member of the Board of Directors of the not-for-profit Quonochontaug Yacht Club. Mark has been working closely with Jennifer Knebel to ensure a smooth transition. We thank Jennifer for her outstanding service to CHC as Interim CFO, and as CFO of the Child Guidance Center of Southern CT.
