

Nancy Noyes, RN, MS, PPCNP-BC, PMHCNS-BC

Nancy Noyes is the Advanced Practice Provider Behavioral Health Manager and a practicing Child and Adolescent Psychiatric NP at Nationwide Children's Hospital in Columbus, OH. In addition, she is the Program Director of the Psychiatric NP postgraduate fellowship training program. Nancy has served in a variety of roles in clinical education, research leadership and practice. She has also been in private practice and consulted with a larger primary care group. Her area of clinical interest and expertise is in pediatric bipolar and psychotic disorders. Ms. Noyes received her Bachelor of Science degree in Nursing from West Virginia University and her Master of Science degree in Nursing Administration from the University of New Hampshire. In 2000, Ms. Noyes completed two certificates of advanced studies both as a Pediatric Primary Care Nurse Practitioner and a Mental Health Nurse Practitioner at Northeastern University in Boston, Massachusetts.